Neutral Clans

A collection of clan that are neither friendly or hostile in nature.

Ascendant (Fractured)

After the fall of Former King Nox & the dissolution of the Lake Hermits Ascendant was formed. But Ascendant has now fractured into 2 entities as of 10th of Nov 2024. Some have stayed in Ascendant while others have formed a new clan called Silverquill due to irreconcilable differences in their moral alignment. No one really knows what the future holds for Ascendant...

La Orden De Los Cuervos Blanco (White Ravens)

The White Ravens have been an enemy of the free people ever since they first set foot in the fields of strife. They have been oppressing anyone they can at every turn... Slaying innocent people in pursuit of their goods... Until the day The Order of the BloodBrothers stood in defiance of their tyranny & The Bastion Concord was formed. A Gallia united against all forms of evil & tyranny, is a strong Gallia. Nothing will stop us in the protection of all the free people of Tremen & beyond. A list of former alliances

Lake Hermits (Dissolved)

The Lake Hermits has had a coup d'état on 21 Sep 2024. Many people have left Lake Hermits and formed their own clan called Ascendant. This happened after an internal conflict with their leadership. This marks the disillusion of the alliance between The Order of the BloodBrothers & Lake Hermits. I wish the best of luck to everyone involved, I have always stood with the free people of Tremen & beyond. Free of taxes, free to own their own land, free to do what they like with their resources. We are an order built on the principles that we are all free people who made and continue to make the choice to work together for the betterment of each other and the realm. I will support any movement that is designed to better the free people. So long as I draw breath, I will stand against tyrants and with the free people.

Alliance formed

Eryndor (Formerly Ravenhall)

We have since grown apart in our ultimate goals for Gallia. We will always, without fail, support and defend the free & innocent people of Gallia... Attached you will find the final letter that ultimately dissolved the First Alliance...

To: @thoryk @katnipt

The order of the BloodBrothers always has & always will stand with the free & innocent people of Gallia.

BloodHaven always has & always will be a Sanctuary for the lost and lonely.

In order to best align with the needs of the free & innocent peoples of Gallia, the Order of the BloodBrothers & our allies will from this day forward remain neutral from any and all kingdoms that may rise, regardless of their origins or intent.

Our mission is a simple one, to offer loyalty to every individual who offers it in return. To help and protect the free & innocent of Gallia, by any means necessary. To ensure that every person knows they are valued regardless of their ability & to maintain peace, even if that means marching to war in defense of those who cannot protect themselves.

Ever since the fall of the Lake Hermits, the First Alliance has been strained. Our goals and mission never fully aligning.

It is for this reason, to better focus on our core mission and dedication to the free & innocent of Gallia that I, Grand Marshal VoidLock GraveHeart, Leader of the Order of the BloodBrothers, from this day forward, hereby dissolve the First Alliance for irreconcilable differences.

This comes not from a place of hostility or spite, in fact it comes from a place of dedication to peace for all of Gallia. The Bastion Concord & all future alliances will not be handshake alliances, rather they will be formed based on actions and efforts in support of the free people.

((Eryndor's (Formerly Ravenhall) citizens are a great friend of the free people. Aligned with the common goal of keeping the people free, during King Elryck's crowning Grand Marshal VoidLock GraveHeart & King Elryck formed an official alliance. Marking a great day for all of Gallia, as our allies grow so does our ability to better help more and more denizens of the realm. With the growing threat of oppression and subjugation from bandits and hostile clans, it is more important than ever that the free people are protected wherever they may go. The fields of strife & war are more active than ever...))

WickHaven

WickHaven is a great ally of the people, building bridges where others would build walls. Our alliance seeks to strengthen our common goal of keeping the free people of Tremen & beyond... free. One of their great works is the sundial bridge, a hope to all who pass over it & gathering spot for many events.
