

Black Bloods

The Black Bloods were formed soon after the founding of The Order of the BloodBrothers.

The Black Bloods is the mercenary enclave within The Order of the BloodBrothers. Tempered by the heat of combat, their blood has turned black, a mark of their resilience from the trials they have faced along the way. Renowned for their unwavering courage & honor, no contract is too big or too small. Anyone seeking to hire our knights for a contract will be looking for the Black Bloods within BloodHaven.

It must be known that our Black Bloods will NOT accept every contract that comes their way. Only contracts that align with our overall mission and goal will even be considered. We will NOT accept contracts that go against what we stand for & believe in.

More to come soon...
