

Mission Statement

The overarching mission of the InterSleuths Org in Star Citizen

- Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct

May our moral compass always guide us true

---

Article I: Core Conduct

- All members shall treat fellow Citizens, both within and outside the organization, with respect.
- Harassment, griefing, intentional exploiting & duping will not be tolerated under any circumstance.
- The code of conduct portrayed here applies to anything that directly or indirectly grieves or otherwise inhibits other players from enjoying the game as it is intended. This means that running drugs, (while illegal in game) is allowed.
- This code is not intended to restrict PvE gameplay of the sorts that in no way affects other players.

Article II: Zero Tolerance for Piracy

- Piracy, raiding, or theft from the law abiding citizen is strictly prohibited.
- Members shall not associate with pirate factions, knowingly harbor intentional criminals, or participate in black-market activities.
- Running drugs & or other in game illegal things is acceptable within the confines of the game, so long as they don't grief another's ability to play the game.

Article III: Fair Engagement

- Exploiting in-game bugs, glitches, or unintended mechanics for personal or organizational gain is strictly forbidden.
- Combat engagements must reflect honor. Spawn camping, pad ramming, and similar practices are not acceptable.
- Cloud Imperium terms of service must be followed at ALL times.

Article IV: Unity in Representation

- Members are representatives of the organization at all times, and conduct must reflect our values, especially in public comms or global channels.

Article V: Loyalty and Lawfulness

- We operate under UEE law, and support legal operations across the Stanton system and beyond.
- Members who choose criminal paths, either temporary or long-term, must disclose intentions, failure to do so may result in dismissal.

Article VI: Transparency and Trust

- Cheating & or third-party manipulation tools are strictly forbidden.
- Trust and openness are core to our structure, violations undermine the crew and the mission.